Planning My Funeral Folders are now available in the sacristy and the rectory office. Your own preparation is an important thing to do for your families to get things in "dying order" even though it may occur in the far (or near) future. Also, planning the liturgy is an important part of evangelization, as sometimes those who come to a funeral never come to a church any other time. For those who have not made your LIVING WILL provisions, copies of the document which combines a living will and health care power of attorney are also available.

The Adoration Chapel at the House of Studies is in great need of a adorers willing to commit to the following days/hours: Monday 5 to 6PM, and Wednesday, 10 to 11AM. Please contact Donna Butt at 240-529-2470, if you are willing to take one of the time slots. Thanks

Eucharistic Moments January Unworthy Communion are frequent. "How may have the temerity to approach the holy altar with sins hidden and disguised...How many have not sorrow which the good God wants from them, and keep a secret willingness to fall back into sin...and do not put forth all efforts to amend and confess...How many avoid occasions of sin when they can.. If you have ever been in these dispositions in approaching Holy Communion, you commit a sacrilege - repent this horrible crime!" St. John Vianney

Pro-Life Corner On this Season of the Epiphany, may we be given the grace to always see in others the face of Christ our Savior.
